Official Memorandum.

During the period of Dewan's Tour in Northern India (15th to 27th March 1923) only urgent papers should be submitted for his orders. Such urgent papers may be sent to Bombay to await the arrival at "Taj Mahal Hotel" up to and inclusive of 22nd instant. Bulky reference files may be kept back. Only the minimum of the papers required for understanding the case and passing orders should be sent. Wherever possible orders may be obtained on brief explanatory notes without sending connected files.

Any matters in which specially emergent orders are necessary should be submitted to the First Member of Council for his instructions.

By order,
